

About National Careers Week

National Careers Week (NCW) is a one-week celebration of careers guidance - Monday 6th – 11th March 2023.

The aim is to provide a focus for careers guidance activity at an important stage in the academic calendar to help support students to develop awareness and excitement about their future pathways.

There are a wide range of free quality CEIAG resources that link education with the world of employment to ensure students get an important insight to the future of work and further learning.

NCW is a dedicated week every year allowing schools, colleges, universities, alternative provision settings and organisations to work towards.

It's backed-up with free high-quality printable, downloadable, digital and video resources for educators to support planning and delivery.

The resources and activities are available all year round so you can make any of your CEIAG / Careers activities come to life – whenever you do them. (But of course NCW would really love you to get involved!)

National Careers Week 2023

National Careers Week runs from Monday 6 - Friday 10 March 2023.

To celebrate, from Monday you can watch an online, fun and interactive workshop called 'Career We Go' for 13 to 16 year-olds and presented by teacher, Mr P.

Then on Friday 10 March, join our special careers livestream, where legendary comedian Russell Kane will be chatting to special guests from TV, fashion and games design about their fascinating careers.

Dream job or worst job?

We put some of you to the test with questions about the best and worst jobs you could imagine doing when you're older. What's your dream job, worst job and would you choose money over happiness?
